

The background of the poster is a vibrant blue and white checkered pattern, reminiscent of traditional Bavarian Oktoberfest tents. At the top, a wooden sign with a weathered texture displays the event title. The sign is flanked by two blue and white checkered flags, each featuring a golden coat of arms. Below the sign, a blue banner with white text and hop icons provides the location. The dates are centered below the banner, flanked by horizontal lines. The word 'CREW' is prominently displayed in large, white, distressed letters, with golden wheat stalks on either side. The bottom of the poster features a large, empty white rectangular box with a blue border, intended for a name or team. The overall scene is festive, with string lights and a glimpse of a crowded tent interior visible in the background.
